

Classifiers

1 Why

Often the set of postcepts is a finite set, commonly with only two elements.

2 Definition

A classifier is a predictor whose codomain is a finite set. We call the postcepts classes. We call the prediction of a classifier on a precept the classification of the precept.