

Why

We want our spaces to be analytically complete.¹

Definition

Our model for completeness is the real numbers, which are (by definition) complete. A metric space is complete if every egoprox sequence converges.

¹Future editions will modify.

