

Set Symmetric Differences

1 Why

We want to consider the elements of a set and another set which are in either, but not in both.

2 Definition

The symmetric difference of a set with another set is the union of the difference between the latter set and the former set and the difference between the former and the latter.

