

Result

Proposition 1. The determinant of an invertible square real matrix is the multiplicative inverse of the determinant of the matrix.

Proof. Let  $A \in \mathbf{R}^{n \times n}$  be invertible. We want to show that

$$\det(A^{-1}) = (\det(A))^{-1}.$$

□

