

Definition

A partially ordered set (L, \preceq) is called a lattice if each two element subset has a least upper bound and greatest lower bound.

