

Definition

A convex set contains every closed line segment between any two points. Every affine set is convex.

Proposition 1. Every affine set is convex.

Proposition 2. The intersection of a family of convex sets is convex.

Proposition 3. The translate of a convex set is convex. The scalar multiple of a convex set is convex.

