

Definition

Given a subset A of a topological space, a point x is said to be in the boundary of A if x is in both the closure of A and the closure of the complement of A .

Notation

The boundary of a set A in a topological space is denoted by $\text{Bdry}(A)$. Other notation includes ∂A .

