

AFFINE SET DIMENSIONS

Why

Definition

The dimension of a nonempty affine set is the dimension of the subspace parallel to it. The dimension of the empty set (viewed as an affine set) is the -1. Points, lines and planes are affine sets of dimension 0, 1, and 2 respectively.

