

Why

Real functions are vectors.

Definition

The set of real functions $f : \mathbf{R} \rightarrow \mathbf{R}$ is a vector space under pointwise addition, multiplication and scaling.

