

Result

Proposition 1. Every event in the tail sigma algebra of a sequence of independent random variables defined on the same probability space has probability zero or one.

