

Egoprox Sequences

1 Why

We talk about sequences in a metric space which are “bunching up.”

2 Definition

A sequence in a metric space is egoprox if for every positive real number, there exists a final part of the sequence so that any two terms of the final part are less than the positive number apart.