

Definition

We call a cone  $C$  is convex. Not every cone is convex. For example, the union of the nonnegative and nonpositive orthants. Both the nonnegative and nonpositive orthants are convex.

