

Why

We want to talk about which sets of points correspond to cubes in space.

Definition

A cube is a product of three intervals. Some authors use the term box or re-use the term rectangle. As with rectangles, we apply the adjectives open, closed, left-open, left-closed accordingly.

