

Random Variables

1 Why

TODO

2 Definition

A random variable is a real-valued measurable function on a probability space.

2.1 Notation

Let (Ω, \mathcal{A}, P) be a probability space. Let R denote the set of real numbers. Then $x : \Omega \rightarrow R$ is a random variable.