

Definition

A perfect matching is a set of edges of an undirected graph that meets every vertex exactly once.

