

Definition

An orthogonal matrix is a matrix  $U \in \mathbf{R}^{n \times n}$  whose columns are orthonormal. In other words, an orthogonal matrix has  $n$  columns, and so its columns are a basis for  $\mathbf{R}^n$ .

