

Why

The set of positive semidefinite matrices has an attractive geometric structure.

Main result

Proposition 1.  $\mathbf{S}_+^d$  is a convex, pointed, closed cone with interior  $S_{++}^d$  relative to  $\mathbf{S}^d$ .<sup>1</sup>

The cone of positive definite matrices is open.

---

<sup>1</sup>Future editions will contain a proof.

