

Nonnegative Operators

Definition

Suppose $T \in \mathcal{L}(V)$ is self-adjoint operator over a field F which is R or C. T is nonnegative (or positive semidefinite) if $$\langle Tv, v \rangle \ge 0$$ for all

for all $v \in V$.

