

Real Integral Additivity

Why

Is the sum of two functions integrable? What is their sum.

Result

Proposition 1. Suppose $f,g: \mathbf{R} \to \mathbf{R}$ are integrable. Then the function f+g is integrable and

$$\int f + g = \int f + \int g$$

