

Standard Deviation

1 Why

TODO

2 Definition

The standard deviation of an integrable real-valued random variable is the square root of its variance.

2.1 Notation

Let f be an integrable real-valued random variable. Denote the standard deviation of f by std(f). We have defined it

$$\mathsf{std}(f) = \sqrt{\mathsf{var}(f)}.$$