

Correlation and Independence

1 Why

How does correlation relate to independence?

2 Results

These two properties are not equivalent: independence is stronger than uncorrelated.

Proposition 1. Two integrable and independent real-valued random variables are uncorrelated.

Proposition 2. There exist uncorrelated integrable real-valued random variables which are not independent.