

Natural Integer Isomorphism

Why

Do the natural numbers correspond (in the sense of Isomorphisms) to elements of integers.

Main result

Indeed, the natural numbers correspond to the \mathbb{Z}_+ .

Proposition 1. $(\mathbf{Z}_{++}, + \mid \mathbf{Z}_{++})$ and $(\omega, +)$ are isomorphic.

Proof. The function is
$$f(n) = [(n,0)]^{1}$$

¹The full account will appear in future editions.

