

MATRIX DETERMINANT OF INVERSES

Result

Proposition 1. The determinant of an invertible square real matrix is the multiplicative inverse of the determinant of the matrix.

Proof. Let $A \in \mathbb{R}^{n \times n}$ be invertible. We want to show that

$$\det(A^{-1}) = (\det(A))^{-1}.$$

