

MATRIX DETERMINANT OF INVERSES

Why

Result

PROPOSITION 1. The determinant of an invertible square real matrix is the multiplicative inverse of the determinant of the matrix.

Proof. Let  $A \in \mathbb{R}^{n \times n}$  be invertible. We want to show that

$$\det\left(A^{-1}\right) = \left(\det A\right)^{-1}.$$

