

Topological Boundaries

Definition

Given a subset A of a topological space, a point x is said to be in the boundary of A if x is in iboth the closure of A and the closure of the complement of A.

Notation

The boundary of a set A in a topological space is denoted by $\mathrm{Bdry}(A)$. Other notation includes ∂A .

