Why

We want to talk about making several decisions.

Definition

A decision process consists of two sets, a function set, an action

Other terminology

Decision processes are commonly called markov decision processes.[1]

---

[1]As usual, we avoid this terminology in connection with the projects guidelines against using particular names.

Decision Processes