⬙ Mutual Information

1 Why

2 Definition

The mutual information of a joint distribution over two random variables is the entropy of the product of the marginal distributions relative to the joint distribution.

2.1 Notation

Let R be the set of real numbers. Let A and B be two non-empty sets. Let $p : A \times B \to R$ be a distribution.

Probability Outcomes

4